

Project GOH!: Good Oral Health

Come to a meeting to get information about a research project to improve your oral health.

Date:

Time:

Place:

Refreshments will be served

Project GOH is a collaboration of:

The UCONN School of Dental Medicine and the Institute for Community Research in cooperation with SHP Management

Principal Investigators: Susan Reisine, Ph.D. and Jean Schensul, Ph.D.

Title: A Bi-level Intervention to Improve Older Adult Oral Health

Please note that Woodside Village Apartments and its employees cannot be held liable for information or service that is being presented today. Inclusion of the presenter today does not constitute endorsement. Importantly, all medication and health care should be discussed with your health care provider. Legal issues should be discussed with your attorney or legal aid agency.